

CJE Counseling Services

CJE Counseling Services is staffed by a team of Licensed Clinical Social Workers (LCSWs) who are specialists in the field of mental health services for adults aged 55+ and work closely with internists, geriatricians, geriatric psychiatrists, and other professionals outside of CJE. Our team is dedicated to helping older adults improve their mental health and emotional well-being and find more effective ways to manage difficult life situations that can occur, including:

- Depression and anxiety
- Grief and loss
- Living with a history of traumatic events
- Changes in health or function
- Chronic illness and/or chronic pain
- Retirement and its subsequent identity changes
- Relationship challenges
- Financial difficulties
- Managing the stress of transitional life events such as moving, divorce or separation, and becoming a caregiver
- Other aging related or general life stressors

Programs and Services

- Individual, Family and Group Psychotherapy
- Family and Caregiver Support
- Weekly Mindfulness Program
- PEARLS (Program to Encourage Active Rewarding Lives)
